The fifth and final act in the series of horror stories following the events surrounding Azrael. This chapter brings the plot to its conclusion while challenging both your nerve and puzzle solving skills. Azrael's Circle is a novel action/adventure horror/suspense short story horror game with puzzles. Each chapter contains several different chapters where you will need to solve a puzzle. For example, the first chapter covers the story of the very first summoning. An action horror game. The story is a cross between horror, thriller, suspense and mystery. It contains supernatural themes, horrific images, adult language and strong adult themes. Suggested age range is 15 and older. The story contains moments of violence, strong language, and adult content, including scenes depicting nudity, sex, and violence. The game is not recommended for children. You have to talk to people, solve puzzles, and explore. Some parts of the story will require you to make decisions that will change the story path. Azrael is in hiding. He is trying to figure out a new way to kill without being detected by his followers. Your job, as a detective, is to find him and put an end to this game.

Chapter 5: The Fifth Act Belongings Have No Memory Mr. Birch went to Europe to see his doctor, however he never returned from that trip. It was several weeks later that the pastor of the church in Scotland called the police to report that the church was plagued by bad luck, terrible possessions and a dark presence was following the pastor. As the pastor spoke he began to recite a strange rhyme. The pastor speaks with an accent that sounds North American. "Black cranium, black eyes, strong teeth, And I brought you a gift, You're here to see my master. Play your part tonight, From the chicken is the soul taken, And bring to Mr. Birch a key. When the key is in his hand, Then the door will open." "Was this the way that your father died? Was it, Mr. Birch?" "The night before I had called upon the Lord for help, and this was his answer to me. I was only a boy when Father died and I have no memory of his death. I have no memory of this place, and no memory of my childhood. I have been brought here to this place to be a servant of my master, and to be
